

DAMES GIVE $5,000 TO MEMORIAL HALL

Members of Organization Will Be Asked for Additional Contributions.

Washington, April 30.—The National Society of the Colonial Dames of America will establish permanent headquarters in Washington and will have allotted to them several rooms in the proposed George Washington Memorial Hall.

At the closing session of the tenth biennial council of the national society, held in the Arlington Hotel, today a resolution was passed making an initial appropriation of $5,000 to the George Washington Memorial fund. An appeal will be sent out to Colonial Dames in all parts of the country to make additional contributions.

The resolution was passed unanimously and with enthusiasm after Mrs. Henry J. Dimock addressed the council on the aims and purposes of the George Washington Memorial Association, of which she is president, and pointed out to them the advantages they would have in establishing permanent headquarters at the national capital, and in a building which is the grandest of its proportions to be one of the architectural features of Washington. Mrs. Dimock, who is herself a Colonial Dame, came here from New York for the special purpose of addressing the council.

Address of Mrs. Dimock. Mrs. Dimock in her address explained to the society that the George Washington Memorial Association, composed of prominent men and women in all parts of the country, was raising a fund of $2,000,000 with which to erect in this city a large memorial hall as a tribute to the first President. She said that an additional $500,000 would be raised as an endowment fund to defray the expense of maintenance of the hall, so that it could be used free of charge by conventions and those organizations which will have headquarters in it.

"This memorial building," she continued, "is to be practical in plan and construction and of the most durable character. It is to be planned so as to furnish a home and gathering place for national, scientific, educational, literary, art, medical and similar organizations that may need such accommodations. It will furnish a place where all the patriotic societies, both North and South, may testify to their love for the Father of His Country. The building will contain a great hall or auditorium and room for large engagements, rooms for small and large meetings, office rooms and students' research rooms.

"This building must be the nation's tribute to Washington. Every one of us must have a part in it. I ask each one of you to contribute at least $1 to the building fund. We also solicit larger subscriptions that this national work may be speedily realized."

Mrs. Dimock stated that many thousands of dollars already had been contributed to the fund, and that it was growing rapidly. She said that the scientific societies of the District had pledged about $50,000 to the project, and that even the school children in the national capital, through the purchase of George Washington buttons, had contributed more than $2,000.

Later in the session $500 was appropriated for the purpose of securing the services of an expert to examine colonial silver in this country. The session came to a close shortly after 1 o'clock. Mrs. Dickinson will give a tea for the Dames at her residence, 1810 Connecticut Avenue. The reception given at the Colonial Dame Club last night was largely attended, and many members of the Society of the Cincinnati, Daughters of the American Revolution and other similar organizations were in attendance.

MOB ORGANIZING TO MOVE ON JAIL

Will Attempt to Lynch Negro Who Made Attack on White Woman.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bluefield, W. Va., April 30.—As a result of an attack upon Mrs. Kemp Charlton, a highly respected woman, at Narrows, Va., by Luther Hale, a colored youth, twenty-one years old, last night, a mob is being quietly organized, and it is the general belief that the negro will be lynched before daybreak Sunday. Hale, who has been doing general chore work for several families at Narrows, among them the Charlton family, last night, in the absence of Mr. Charlton, entered the house and made an attack upon Mrs. Charlton. She broke away, however, screaming at the top of her voice, and making a frantic race out help. Her cries attracted the attention of neighbors, and a band of pursuers at once started on the trail of the negro, who after a chase of three hours was captured in the mountains, about seven miles distant and brought back. After a brief preliminary hearing before a Narrows justice, he was held to answer the charge before the grand jury, and in default of bond was lodged in the county jail at Pearisburg.

The lynching sentiment is strong, and a posse has already been preparing to move upon the county jail. The authorities have been advised as to the formation of a lynching party, and the jail is now surrounded by a strong armed guard.

OFFICIAL NOT LET NAMED.

Bristol Citizens Do Not Know Who Will Be Their Postmaster.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., April 30.—In view of the fact that to-day was the date for the expiration of the term of the former postmaster here, E. A. Warren, the people of Bristol are expecting immediate news from Washington with reference to who is to be made permanent postmaster here. John M. Fain, who is serving temporarily in that position, was recommended by the board of Postmaster Warren, when the latter was removed from office a few weeks ago. A short time previous to that, President Taft nominated Gaylord F. Goodell, a Virginian, to be postmaster. On account of the objections of Representative Brownlow, who contends that the Bristol office is rightfully in his territory, the name of Mr. Goodell was withheld. The selectors from Tennessee said that they would oppose it upon the ground that they felt that a Tennessean was entitled to the office. Since that time both Representative Stump and Representative Brownlow have seen the President, and each has presented his claim. The decision has now awaited. Meanwhile there have sprung up some dark horse candidates that are hoping to win. The impression among Virginians, however, is that Goodell will win.

BACK TO THE FARM IS HADLEY'S PLAN

Movement Will Be Inaugurated at Meeting of Philanthropists.

CORPORATION PROPOSED Believed to Be Solution for High-Cost-of-Living Problem.

St. Louis, Mo., April 30.—A nationwide "Back to the Farm" movement, to be sponsored by philanthropists of the United States, will be inaugurated in this city May 5, at a preliminary meeting of interested parties called by Governor Hadley.

Governor Hadley long has been an ardent advocate of a return of city dwellers to the farm and for months has been working out the details of a plan which he believes will solve the high cost of living problem and at the same time bring about more scientific farming.

He proposes to organize the National Farm Association, with the philanthropists of the country as stockholders, to furnish farms, equipment and instruction for worthy applicants who are seeking to escape from the cities. Prominent men are taking an active part in the plan. Addresses will be made at the preliminary meeting by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, W. J. Bryan, Jacob R. R. E. Yeakum, Lyman Abbott, Jane Adams, Joseph W. Folk, Governor Hadley, Immigration Commissioner J. H. Curran and others.

A committee man from each State will be named at the meeting and a call will be issued for a final meeting, at which the association will be formally organized.

Incorporates for Million. Hadley's plan is one of the best features of similar ideas in use in Europe, with minor additions by himself. It is proposed to incorporate the association for $1,000,000, the stock to be divided into 1,000 shares of $1,000 each.

These shares, it is expected, will pay dividends, which either will be taken out by the stockholders or added to the capital. It is then proposed to locate colonies on model farms in Texas, Missouri, Alabama and other States where land is cheap and fertile. Each farmer will be allotted forty acres; a home will be erected for him, and fences, utensils and live stock furnished. Thirty-two of these forty-acre farms will constitute a colony.

Each colony also will include a central farm, presided over by an expert agriculturist, who will oversee the work on the farms, the rotation of crops, etc. Tenants will be given ample time to pay for their farms, and their profits have been figured out by Hadley as averaging $2,500 a year.

Each colony will have a school, where scientific farming will be taught in addition to the usual curriculum. Entertainments will be provided for the colonists, so that farm life will lose the monotony that is now largely responsible for the rush to the cities, in Hadley's estimation.

Each group of thirty-two farms will be complete, it is figured at $50,000, thus allowing twenty colonies, or 640 farms, on the original investment, the number of farms to constantly increase as the tenants pay off their indebtedness.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., April 30.—The good roads meeting held here was composed of about 125 delegates from the counties of Wake, Durham, Orange, Alamance and Guilford, with a large attendance from this city. The good roads of Durham county were a topic of discussion, and the present and enthused them with new endeavors to prosecute the work.
